RPD HEMP PRODUCT CATALOG 2025

Cannabis Vs. Hemp

Both hemp and cannabis come from the Cannabis sativa plant. In 2018 Congress passed the Farm Bill, which created two separate categories of Cannabis sativa: Cannabis, and hemp. According to the law, anything $>.3\%$ THC by dry weight is considered Cannabis, and anything containing $<.3\%$ by dry weight is hemp. Since Delta 9 products are derived from hemp and contain $<.3\%$ THC, they are (legally speaking) NOT cannabis products, they are hemp products. This means they can be sold and served in places other than dispensaries in most states including New Jersey.

What is Delta-9?

Delta 9 is a form of THC—that's an intoxicating cannabinoid found in cannabis and hemp plants. THC beverages, are created using a process to break the extracted THC down into super tiny particles, and then the particles are suspended in refreshing seltzers, bold sodas, teas and energy drinks

What's the difference between THC and CBD?

While both are found in cannabis plants, they interact with the body differently. One main difference is that THC produces a euphoric state while CBD does not.

Do accounts need any special licensing to sell Delta-9 Products?

No, at the time of this documents creation you do not need any special licensing to carry Delta-9 products.

Do accounts have to check ID's?

Yes, consumers need to be 21+ to purchase ALL Delta-9 Products. We will be including verbiage on every RPD Hemp Invoice to ensure each retailer agrees to only sell to 21+ patrons.

Can accounts order Hemp Products via the Retailer Portal?

Yes, there will be a drop down to toggle between RPD Beer & RPD Hemp.

Can ABC Licensed retailers sell Delta 9?

Yes, the State has made it very clear that they are unable to and will NOT be able to enforce the Intoxicating Hemp Bills provisions. Below is the exact verbiage from the States Website which was also included in a letter from the NJSLA:

Update regarding recently enacted NJ statute regulating intoxicating hemp products, P.L. 2024, ch. 73

On September 12, 2024, Governor Murphy signed into law a bill regulating the production and sale of certain intoxicating hemp products. The new law immediately made it unlawful to sell or distribute a product intended for human consumption that contains THC in any detectable amount to a person under 21 years of age. Other provisions of that law relating to the regulation of intoxicating hemp products were scheduled to take effect on October 12, 2024. Due to a court order issued on October 10 in Loki Brands LLC et al. v. Platkin et al., No. 24-cv-9389 (D.N.J.), the State is unable to begin enforcement of these provisions at this time. However, the provisions prohibiting sale to those under 21 remain in effect. The court's decision is being reviewed, and any further developments will be posted as they become available.

The Retailer Portal is the easiest and most efficient way to make payments, view invoices, and check your account balance. Log in from anywhere on the mobile-friendly site to view all of the information on your account. You can download past invoices, apply credit balances, and make same-day payments. You can even access multiple accounts using one login.
